MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

SUBJECT : Appreciation for an Outstanding Contribution of Time and Services to a Presidential Classroom for Young Americans, 1976, by Mr. [REDACTED]

STATINTL

1. As in past years, the Agency has participated in the Presidential Classroom for Young Americans by sending a representative to serve as an instructor and by conducting a seminar in the Headquarters Auditorium on six successive Tuesday evenings during January and February of this year. These seminars were attended by approximately 350 high school students from around the country as part of a one week visit to Washington, D.C. to learn about the internal workings of the three branches of Federal Government.

2. At the end of each week, students were asked to evaluate their stay in Washington and to rate each of the fifteen seminars that they attended. The results of this evaluation show that Mr. [REDACTED] seminar on the "Role of Intelligence in Foreign Policy" received the highest overall rating by students. It should be noted that Mr. [REDACTED] was in competition with numerous prominent figures from within the Federal Government and news media personalities.

3. The attached statistical compilations reflected the extensive preparation which Mr. [REDACTED] undertook prior to conducting these seminars as well as his uncanny ability to relate to the youth of America on a potentially explosive and controversial topic. At the conclusion of each seminar Mr. [REDACTED] returned to the Quality Inn Hotel to conduct informal discussion groups and answer student questions relative to the Agency until 11:30 P.M. These discussion groups were by far the best attended of any, with students virtually standing in the doorway to participate in the discussion. At the conclusion of these discussion groups, Mr. [REDACTED] attended sessions with instructors from other agencies and other staff members, often facing a third barrage of questions into the early hours of the morning. Mr. [REDACTED] professionalism and interest in the Presidential Classroom program bring credit upon the Office of Training as well as the image of the Agency during these times of investigation and questioning of Agency programs.

STATINTL

4. Please express my deep appreciation to Mr. [REDACTED] for his time and effort in a program that can only bring credit and respect to the Agency thanks to his contributions.
